

2018 Sabbatical Leave Recipients

Name	UN Entity	Duty Station	Title of research/project
Ms. Aleksandra Sasa Gorisek	DPI	New York	Monitoring and Analysing the Voice of Influencers on Social Media
Ms. Ana B. Moreno	Habitat	New York	The United Nations' Views of "Urban" and its Consequences in Global Affairs
Mr. Anatole Ayissi	UNOCA	Libreville	Preventing Eelectoral Violence in Africa - Challenges and oppprtunities for mediation and preventive diplomacy: the case for Central Africa nd the Great Lakes
Mr. Andrey Antonov	UNMIK	Pristina	Criminal Investigation in Post-Conflict Environment (organization, methodology, legal and human rights aspects)
Mr. Brian E. Vitunic	DPA	New York	Organizational Psychodynamics in the Peace and Security Pillar of the United Nations Secretariat
Mr. Dan T Teng'o	UNEP	Nairobi	Media communication of climate change
Ms. Daniela C Wuerz	UNOG	Geneva	The impact of mobility on UN staff and the beneficial effects of personal resources
Ms. Demetra Arapakos	OIOS	New York	Using anthropological methods in evaluation
Ms. Di Zou	DGACM	New York	Quality assessment in UN document translation : an analytical framework for defining and measuring quality
Ms. Elizabeth M Joyce	CTED	New York	Multilateral efforts to counter terrorism and violent extremism : methodologies to guide strategic approaches and assess impact
Mr. Eric Tistounet	OHCHR	Geneva	Stocktaking and Challenges of The Human Rights council: Modus Operandi and The Way Forward
Ms. Esty P Sutyoko	OCHA	Geneva	Humanitarian Giving: Global outreach for collective humanitarian action
Ms. Fulvia Farinelli	UNCTAD	Geneva	Social Entrepreneurship and Migration: supporting the socio-economic inclusion of refugees and vulnerable migrants through social entrepreneurship
Ms. Genevieve Feraud	UNCTAD	Geneva	Using Educatoin Technologies (EdTech) to leverage capacity-building for developing countries
Ms. Grace Puliye	ESCAP	Bangkok	Assessing the impact of social protection on women's labour force participation in Asia and the Pacific
Ms. Imma Delgado	OHCHR	Geneva	Empowering, promoting and protecting youth: the imperative of an international insturment on youth rights
Mr. Maher Nasser	DPI	New York	Harnessing the potential of 21st century innovation and technology to meet rising global challenges, including those created by certain aspects of innovation: policy options and practical recommendations for the UN
Ms. Maria-Teresa Pisani	ECE	Geneva	A UN Framework Initiative on Sustainable Textiles to support SDG12 (Responsible Consumption and Production)

Mr.	Mekki Elbadri	DGACM	New York	Developing a standardised remote outreach programme for training language students at African universities to work for the UN
Mr.	Michael Van Gelderen	OHCHR	Geneva	African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and UN Human Rights Mechanisms - Lessons learned from collaboration
Ms.	Nussara Ruengijirachu	ESCAP	Bangkok	Big data: Study on knowledge management systems and analytical tools to drive decision making such as The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for the United Nations.
Ms.	Padmashree Gehl Sampath	UNCTAD	Geneva	Free trade agreements and the new global institutional architecture: Issues for trade and industrial policy
Mr.	Patrick Buse	UNOWAS	Dakar	Challenges and opportunities for youths and women as agents of change for political leadership in situations of fragility - a case study of Sierra Leone
Mr.	Ricardo Sanchez	ECLAC	Santiago	Pricing, Business and Shipping Cycle and Short-Term Turmoil in the Containers Maritime Transport Market
Mr.	Robert Kehew	HABITAT	Nairobi	Reducing greenhouse gas emissions and improving urban air quality - Is an integrated approach better? Lessons from Mexico City and Madrid
Ms.	Roxaneh Bazergan	DPA	New York	Engaging Iran: Tehran's approach to mediation and perception of the UN as a mediation actor