

Categories/Affiliation eligible and not eligible to take language courses at UNHQ

Eligible to take classes
Category / Affiliation	Paying
– UN Secretariat staff members with contracts through the end of the term	No
– Delegates of Permanent missions to the UN	No
– Delegates of Non-Member State with a standing invitation to participate as observer (Permanent Observer of the Holy See) and Entity w/a standing invitation to participate as observer (Observer Mission of Palestine)	No
– ICSC	No
– UN Retirees (Secretariat, UNDP, UNICEF, UNFPA, UNOPS) (See note 1)	No
– Tour Guides (list from DPI)	No
– Mission staff of Permanent missions to the UN (white D in badge)	Yes
– Mission experts of Permanent mission to the UN (with red stripe across white D)	Yes
– Delegates of Intergovernmental organizations (as listed here)	Yes
– Specialized agencies and related organizations maintaining liaison offices at Headquarters.	Yes
– UNFCU (Up to 10 participants) w/ approval from their HR.	Yes
– UN accredited Press (Up to 15 participants) w/ approval from Aberash Zewde (DPI)	Yes
– UN WOMEN w/ approval from their HR (See note 2)	No
1 - The UN is reimbursed for the permitted students under separate arrangements with the Fund, Programme or Agency.
2- The UN is reimbursed for the permitted students under separate arrangements with UN Women.

Not eligible to take classes
Category / Affiliation
– Spouses of all UN Staff and Diplomats – Children of all UN Staff and Diplomats	– Various church affiliations: Mennonites, Quakers, Christian Church
– Consultants	– NGO
– Interns	– UN Child Care Centre
– Affiliates in DPA or DPI	– United States Committee for UNICEF
– NATO representatives	– Restaurant Associates
– Embassies to the United States – Consulates to the United States	– American Express
– UNIS Teachers	– Bank Personnel: Chase Manhattan, Western Union
– Womens Guild	