"Nutrition and Healthy Eating" with Dr. Deborah Haiat

Dr. Deborah Sztern-Haiat graduated as Medical Doctor in France in 2007 and obtained two master's degrees in nutrition. She practiced as a General Practitioner and a nutritionist in Paris and London. Along with her private practice, she was the Medical Director of a French health network. Shortly after, she became the referent physician in a psychiatric clinic in France, where she was in charge of eating disorders of the Patients Department. In 2018, she relocated to New York and currently practices as a nutritionist.
