

MARCH 2017

UN Secretariat Global Learning & Career Support Programmes

Gender equality learning opportunities available now!

Secretary-General António Guterres envisions a gender-balanced United Nations. We as staff members can take advantage of the many resources available to us today to help us achieve gender equality and parity throughout the organization. Visit Inspira to build awareness about the impact of gender norms and stereotypes by taking the Gender IQ Course (LMS-2393) and make sure to complete the mandatory course, I Know Gender (LMS-2375). Also visit the UN Women Training Centre for additional resources. Get inspired and take action today by visiting HeForShe.

Contact learning@un.org for more information.

Lynda.com video of the month: Bridging cultures

Do you work or manage a multi-cultural team or live in a country where you are not originally from? Culture and language differences can hamper successful collaboration, yet are a key strength if managed and harnessed effectively. Watch this video to learn how to adapt your communication style to bridge these gaps and plan a communications strategy to meet the needs of your diverse team members.

Duration: 4 minutes 02 seconds, from the course: Managing International Projects

CALLING ALL LANGUAGE LOVERS

Teach us your native language!

Create a short video, teaching us a word or expression from your native language to celebrate International Mother Language Day on 21 February. Here's the catch - the explanation must be in any one of the 6 official UN languages: Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Are you up for the challenge?
