

2021 Sabbatical Leave Recipients

Name	UN Entity	Duty Station	Title of research/project
Ms. Aasa Katarina Maansson	OHCHR	New York	The Role of Human Rights in Preventive Mediation: An Assessment and Forward-looking Proposals for the United Nations
Mr. Adrian Marcelo Ciancio	OCHA	Hague	United Nations humanitarian assistance, disaster risk reduction, and climate action: Opportunities for more coherent and coordinate approach
Mr. Aljaz Kuncic	RCS	Riyadh	Enhancing analytical capabilities for SDG acceleration: RCO Economist Toolkit
Mr. Andrew Allimadi	DESA	New York	New Economics for Sustainable Development: The Role of the Social and Solidarity Economy
Mr. Andrew Mold	ECA	Kigali	Research into Regional Integration and Trade in the Light of the AfCFTA
Mr. Andrew Steven Carpenter	DPO	New York	Do the technology and techniques of policing today's Highly Dense Urban Areas hold useful lessons for the planning and conduct of peace operations in the fragile megacities of tomorrow?
Ms. Anne-Maria Kristiina Fenner	UNEP	Panama City	From Ramsay MacDonald to John Kerry: disarmament and environment negotiations
Mr. Asif Rahim Khan	DPPA	New York	Contemporary challenges in mediation: what we can learn from three 20th century cases of international peacemaking
Ms. Catherine Eugenie Marie De Preux De Baets	OHCHR	Geneva	Sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, and sex characteristics in UN programming - Lessons learned from case studies
Mr. Christopher Mark Pedersen	DPO	New York	International community support for implementation of autonomy agreements following a secessionist conflict: Serbian Joint Council of Municipalities, Croatia (Full details are in the attached proposal)
Mr. Ebrima Njie	MINUSCA	Bangui	Central African Republic – Ending the cycle of violence and conflict
Mr. Edy Manolo Barillas Cruz	OCHA	Guatemala City	Analyzing a decade of socio-natural disasters in Guatemala: trends and scenarios
Ms. Emma Christine Evans	OHCHR	Geneva	Climate change, human rights and the recognition of indigenous traditional knowledge
Ms. Fiorella Triscritti	DPPA-DPO-SS	New York	Climate-related security risks in Central America: an indigenous perspective.
Mr. Gregory Ronald Puley	OCHA	New York	Extreme Heat: Adapting Humanitarian Action To a Hot Planet
Mr. Gunnar Jeremias Theissen	OHCHR	Geneva	Preventing and ending homelessness: A human rights guide
Ms. Irma Elizabeth Perez Rito	DESA	New York	The role of transnational Non-Governmental Organizations in UN-sponsored international forums working on immigration: An appraisal through the members of the United Nations' Economic and Social Council.

Mr.	Juan Carlos Chaves-Gonzalez	OCHA	New York	The Necessity of Catching Problems Before They Become Crises: An Essay about the Reasons and Pathways to Making Anticipatory Action the Norm in the Multilateral System
Ms.	Lone Jessen	DPPA	New York	Engaging male stakeholders on the societal benefits of women's inclusion and participation in public and private life: How shifting men's attitudes and behaviors can advance efforts towards more sustainable and just peace in conflict-affected countries.
Mr.	Mario Apostolov	ECE	Geneva	Analysis of the Typology and Principles of Regional Integration with Special Emphasis on Broader Europe in Comparative Perspective
Mr.	Michael Wiener	OHCHR	Geneva	The missing link between the right to peace and conscientious objection to military service
Mr.	Michael Williamson	ESCAP	Bangkok	Closing the gap on SDG7 in the Asia-Pacific region with the COVID-19 recovery
Ms.	Mira Marie Bibiane Davocol Perrier	UNOG	Geneva	Fostering a talent-oriented culture.
Ms.	Naomi M. T. Miyashita	DPO	New York	Social media-enabled influence operations in UN peacekeeping settings
Mr.	Raja Gundu	DPPA	New York	From war to peace: How the UN reshapes narratives in modern conflicts
Ms.	Ruth Mukwana	OCHA	New York	Humanitarian Advocacy: Role of narrative fiction/storytelling to galvanize action to address the causes and consequences of complex humanitarian crises and development issues with a particular focus on women and girls, disability and mental health.
Ms.	Taryn Lesser	OHCHR	New York	Legislation and policies restricting civil society: analysis on obstacles for international engagement, including cooperation with the UN
Mr.	Timur Obukhov	OICT	New York	Correlation of publicly available conflict data and target indicators of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).