There you will find which agencies and Screening Centres are participating, the contact information for each local administrator, policy guidance, eligibility criteria, templates of needed forms, and detailed instruction on how to register in Inspira (including screenshots) for both internal UN Secretariat staff members and external applicants. 2. Am I eligible for the LPE if I have not taken any language courses and I do not use the language regularly at work, but I speak the language at home, with my child or with my spouse?

No, using the language at home does not fulfill the eligibility criteria.

3. May I take the LPE in my mother tongue?

As stated in ST/AI/2021/1, staff members whose 'mother tongue' is one of the official languages of the United Nations need not take the examination in that language.

They may demonstrate adequate knowledge in another UN official language by passing the Language Proficiency Examination in any of those languages, including that in which they are required to be proficient by the terms of their appointment. In no instance will UN Secretariat staff members receive language allowance for the LPE taken in what they indicated in UN records is their mother tongue.

4. How do I know which is my mother tongue in my UN official records?

The determination of mother tongue was made by the UN staff members at the time of UN employment and was officially recorded at the time of recruitment and noted in his or her official status file. Only one language can be officially recognized as the staff member's mother tongue. Once recorded by the UN, staff members are not permitted to change the officially recognized mother tongue. If you do not recall what you indicated in your official UN records regarding your mother tongue, please contact your HR Partner. Such records are not handled by SAS.

Alternatively, and strictly for the purpose of registering for the LPE, if your letter of appointment is issued on behalf of an office or department belonging to the UN Secretariat, then you are considered a staff member of the UN Secretariat and you must register for the LPE using your internal (UN Secretariat) Inspira account when registering for the LPE.

7. Are all UNDP staff members eligible to register for the LPE Examination?

While UNDP staff may meet the established UN Secretariat eligibility criteria, it is UNDP's policy and practice that only UNDP staff members who are in the General Service Category and on Fixed Term or Permanent Appointments are eligible for UNDP financial endorsement to take the Language Proficiency Exam. If you need further clarification, please contact UNDP directly.

18. How do I change LPE Screening Centre (LPESC) before or after registration is closed in Inspira? Or after I have been convoked?

The 2024 Language Proficiency Exam (LPE) is based on UN Level III of the United Nations Language Framework \(UNLF\) established by the UN Secretariat in 2020 and relates to UN Level III of Language Competence overall as defined by specific descriptors for all six UN official languages (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian, and Spanish.) The annual exam is administered online and the exam tests language proficiency, not knowledge or expertise in any particular field.

27. What is the content of the LPE?

The LPE measures language proficiency by testing the same types of tasks/functions that users are expected to do at UN Level III – Advanced Language Competence. Therefore, the exam measures the use of language with a high degree of fluency and accuracy, in a variety of contexts and situations, when dealing with a wide variety of general matters in the personal, public, and professional domains, throughout the Organization.

28. What is the structure of the LPE?

The LPE exam consists of four sections: reading, listening, writing, and speaking. This structural organization is based on receptive activities (reading and listening) and production/interaction activities (writing and speaking).

SECTIONS	NUMBER OF TASKS	TIME	MAXIMUM POINTS
LISTENING	3 Tasks; 25 items total	30-40 mins	25
READING	3 Tasks; 25 items total	50-60 mins	25
WRITING	2 Tasks	90 mins	25
SPEAKING	3 Tasks	30 mins	25

The total exam time is approximately 4 hours.

30. Will there be penalization for incorrect answers?

Each correct item receives points. There is no penalization for wrong or blank responses.

31. How will the LPE be scored?

Each of the four sections is worth 25 points for a total number of 100 points for the exam. Candidates must achieve a minimum of 15 points in each section, and a total score of 65 points or above to pass the exam. Part 1 listening and reading sections and Part 2 writing section of the exam are eliminatory; i.e., candidates who do not reach a minimum of 15 points (out of the possible 25 points) in the listening or reading section of the exam will not have their writing and speaking sections evaluated, and candidates who do not reach a minimum of 15 points (out of the 25 possible points) in the written section of the exam will not have their spoken section evaluated.

The reading and listening sections are scored automatically by the platform. The writing and speaking sections are scored by graders according to three main criteria: 1) Task fulfilment – how well the production follows the task instructions, including in terms of length, organization and coherence; 2) Language range and appropriacy – the use of a range of vocabulary and structures at UN Level III; 3) Language accuracy – grammatical and syntactic accuracy, spelling and punctuation.

32. What practice exams are available and how can they be accessed?
